

Home Sweet Home

By Andrea Zuliani

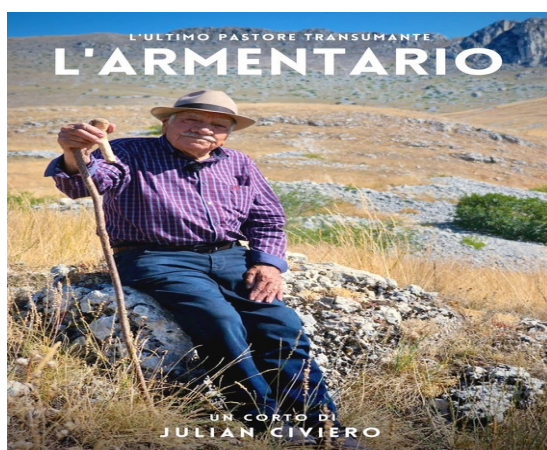

During the Italian lockdown, Aria, a young single woman, lives her days with a sense of increasing emptiness. Until one evening, she receives an anonymous package. Inside is a strange helmet. When Aria wears it, she finds herself in an unknown world. Will everything be all right?

Insieme (Together)

By Lorenzo Sepalone

A girl with a passion for swimming finds the courage to free herself from a violent man

L'Armentario(The Herder)

By Julian Civiero

A collection of stories told by Donato Mucciante, born in 1931, was a shepherd from the age of ten until the late 70's. He still lives in Castel del Monte, his native village.

Male Fadaù

By Matteo Incollu

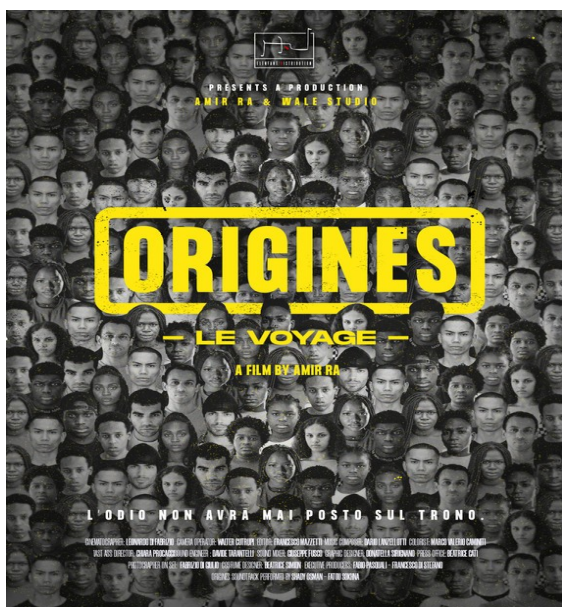

Baunei, Sardinia, 1942. When the village idiot retrieves a radio from a crashed German warplane, a mysterious, eerie voice emerges from the radio and starts to haunt him.

Paperboat

By Luca Esposito

A middle school teacher tries to make his students aware of immigration, the children's response makes one think.

Origines – Le Voyage

By Amir Ra

A musical and visual journey through the lives and innate artistic inclinations of a group of second generation Italian children, their relationship with the past, with their primordial origins, and their ancestral link with nature.